

Agenda of cultural tourist and traditional events in Braşov

15th of October

Days of Dragus

A very popular celebration, it includes film screenings, dance shows, recitals, traditional habits exhibitions, book launchings, camp fires and feasts.

25th of October

Sumedru`s Fire - Moeciu

This custom dates from pre Christian times, when death and rebirth were celebrated through incineration. Today Christian elements have been added, even through the simple association of Saint Dumitru`s name with the day. At night the villagers burn a tree, which symbolizes a god who dies in a terrible way, only to be born again, in flames. The ashes are taken by the villagers in order to fertilize the soil, for a richer harvest.

8th of October

Ceangais` Holiday - Sacele

For one day Sacele hosts traditional feasts accompanied by joy, songs, autumn fruits and dances. The perfect ingredients of a great celebration, on the occasion of Saint Michael and Saint Gabriel.

6th-7th of October

Harvest Day - Prejmer

On Harvest Day (Erntedankfest) the old church of the city is filled with autumn fruits and wheat, while, on the altar a giant bread is placed. On the inside walls of the church, the villagers hang grapes, pumpkins and apples, and after the religious sermon they go from door to door, with baskets of fruits as giveaways.

26th-29th of October

Festival of Romanian Lied – Brasov

“Two hundred years of Romanian Lied deserve a place in the national musical conscience”. These are Mariana Nicolesco`s words, the one who inspired and made possible this prestigious national festival and contest. The event also allows the city of Brasov to be recognized as an important point on the cultural map of the country.

7th of October

Piatra Craiului Marathon - Zarnesti

This competition will take place on roads and mountain paths, valleys, peaks, alpine fields, which are not usually suitable for running (for common runners that is). It is an open competition, and everybody who loves outdoor sports is invited.
