

Agenda of cultural tourist and traditional events in Bucovina

In Bukovine, February is the month of joy and tremendous curiosity. The Museum of Bukovine hosts numerous events regarding our Solar System and our natural treasures. The monthly holidays cheer up the locals, and music and theatre shows are highly appreciated.

Thus, between the 1st and the 16th of February, at the Planetarium of Suceava we play “Hide and Seek with the Moon”, trying to find out more about our natural satellite.

Afterwards, on the 20th of February, we celebrate 510 years since an extremely important astronomical phenomenon was first observed and drawn.

Also, on the 14th of February, conferences and film screenings are organized at the Museum of Natural Science, all dedicated to The Andes, one of our most significant natural treasures, which aim to focus on important bio-diversity problems and environmental issues.

On the 6th of February, Claudiu Bleont and Victoria Cocias star in the well-known play, “Horses at the Window”.

On the 2nd of February, The House of Culture in Suceava hosts an extraordinary performance by Tudor Gheorghe, one of the most beloved and appreciated Romanian singers.

On the 24th of February, “Dragobete” is celebrated. This is the authentic, Romanian version of Valentine`s Day, Dragobete being a deity of love, just like the ancient Roman and Greek Gods.
