6th-24th of November

Autumn at the Planetarium - Suceava

The Museum Complex of Bucovina will host an exciting new event which will give people the chance to find out more about the autumn sky and also about the fascinating Romanian legends of November.

8th of November

Celebration of Saints Day at Poiana Stampei

The inhabitants of Poiana Stampei celebrate the two Archangels, Michael and Gabriel, with songs, dances and religious sermons.

30th of November

Saint Andrew`s Day

The traditions in Bucovina resemble the ones in other remote parts of the country. The girls go out at night, singing or reciting spells, in hopes that the one they are to marry will appear in their dreams. These enchanted and mysterious customs are the pearls of these lands, and holidays are the best occasions for tourists to witness them in all their splendor and fascination.
