

Last winter month in Sibiu brings numerous significant events, all of them worthy of a true European Capital of Culture. Exhibitions that focus on traditions and craftsmanship, and on the cultural identity of the city, considering its new status, are open throughout February, movie screenings take place, delightful concerts are held almost every day and theater plays are presented to the public.

From the 1st of February until the 1st of March, the Astra Museum hosts the “Human Treasures” exhibition which aims to bring forward a cultural dialogue between the public and the craftsmen

From the 20th of January, at the National Brukenthal Museum, a series of exhibitions under the name of “Sibiu – European City” is organized.

Concerts are always a significant part of Sibiu, so that, this month, Imperium Pub hosts daily jazz, blues, jazz-rock and fusion concerts

Over at the Thalia, all February is filled with symphonic concerts. Also, between the 25th and the 26th of February, The Ensemble Musicale Scaligero -Scala di Milano is booked for one amazing performance.

As in January, over at the Astra Film Studio film screenings are scheduled almost every day, while at the Library of Sibiu, on the 16th of February, a spontaneous creation laboratory shall open.

At the Radu Stanca National Theatre, on the 9th and 10th of February, “The Seagull” by A. P. Chekhov will enchant all types of audiences, as it is one of the most touching and emotional plays ever written by Chekhov. Also, on the 3rd of the month, “The Time of Love and Death” and on the 16th and 17th, “The Ball”, both directed by UNITER award winner Radu-Alexandru Nica, will represent two of the main attractions.
